SUGAR DONE WITH. SENATE COMPLETES CONSIDERATION OF THAT SCHEDULE.

HAWAII PROVISION GOES OVER.

So Does the Tobacco Schedule, at Mr. Allison's Request—Pettigrew Anti-Trust Amendment Tabled—35 to 32.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—The Senate made a great stride forward to-day by completing the consideration of its sugar schedule of the tariff bill, excepting the provision relating to Hawaii, which went over. This schedule has been the storm-centre of the entire bill, and with it disposed of, there is a better prospect for speedy action on the bill as a whole. The first paragraph of the sugar schedule has served to bring out all the speeches and the test votes, and when this was passed early to-day the other paragraphs of the schedule were agreed to without further opposition. As agreed to, the schedule places on sugar not above No. 16 Dutch standard 1 cent per pound, and .03 of a cent for every degree above 16, and on sugars above No. 16 Dutch standard, 15-100 cents per pound, and on sugars testing below 87 degrees to the polariscope, 1 cent per pound shall be deducted.

The other provisions of the schedule relate to maple sugar, maple syrup, candy, etc. Only one year and may vote was given during the day-on the amendment of Mr. Lindsey, of Kentucky, to make the 16c. per pound on sugar above No. 16 Dutch standard, 15-100 cents per pound, and on sugars testing below 87 degrees to the polariscope, 1 cent per pound shall be deducted.

On the first paragraph—butter and substitutes therefor, 6 cents per pound—Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, moved to reduce the rate to 4 cents per pound. Disagreed to—29 to 23.

At 5 o'clock the bill was laid aside, and after a short executive session the Senate adjourned.

The House was not in session to-day.

HAVE GONE TO NASHVILLE.

Governor and His Party Off for Tennessee.

Governor O'Ferrall and his staff, together with a select company of ladies and gentlemen, left here yesterday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock for Nashville, whether they go to participate in the ceremonies incident to the celebration of Virginia Day at the Tennessee Confederate Veterans' reunion there next week.

The party travels over the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, and will go direct to Louisville, taking the Louisville and Nashville road to finish their trip. They occupy on the journey Superintendent C. E. Boykin's private car, and a handsome Pullman parlor-car, and in Nashville, where they will arrive this afternoon at 5 o'clock, they will have a week's stay.

In the meantime, Mr. Jones, of the one.

Consideration of the agricultural schedule was then resumed, the butter paragraph being agreed to as reported.

LABOR COST.

During the debate on the sugar schedule, Mr. Caffery read a statement showing that the labor cost in the United States was less than in Germany and other countries, and that the cost of refining sugar there was about a hundred pounds. The Senator said this controverted Mr. Allison's assertion that the cost in the United States was greater than in foreign countries.

The vote was then taken on Mr. Lindsey's amendment, and it was disagreed to, as above stated.

After the proviso relating to the Hawaiian Islands had been passed over, and the consideration of paragraph 266 being completed, with this exception, Mr. Allison moved to insert a new paragraph, to be known as paragraph 266-1/2, of which he had given notice in the Senate. "That the duties on molasses, clayed, jaggery, and other sugars testing not above 87 degrees by the polariscope, shall be one tenth of a cent per pound less than those imposed by the preceding paragraph on corresponding tests of sugar." The paragraph was agreed to without objection.

Paragraph 257, relating to maple sugar and maple syrup, was agreed to, as reported; also, paragraph 288, relating to saccharine.

The committee amendments to paragraph 266, relating to sugar, refined and confectionary, were agreed to, as reported. This brought the Senate to the end of the sugar schedule, the Hawaiian provisions being the only committee provisions to go over.

Mr. Pettigrew desired to have his amendment relative to trusts voted on as part of the sugar schedule.

Mr. Allison asked that it go over, and considered at a later stage of the bill.

Mr. Pettigrew said he felt like having the issue now, unless overruled by the Senate.

Mr. West remarked that he had not supposed there was any difference among parties on the propriety of this amendment. It was time to dispose of it. Otherwise, the whole sugar debate would be reopened at a later stage.

The committee on agriculture had a view to a vote, covers three printed pages, and in brief provides: "That all articles on the suitable list mentioned in this act shall be admitted free of duty, if said articles, or articles of like character of domestic production, are manufactured, or their sale is controlled, or the price affected, by a trust or combination, to increase the cost of said articles to purchasers by preventing competition or otherwise."

ANTI-TRUST POLICY.

Mr. Pettigrew said that this anti-trust policy had been a plank of the Republicans up to the time of the St. Louis convention, when it was left out of the platform. Whether it was purposely left out in behalf of the trusts or not.

Mr. Allison asked if the bill was to be voted down, and if so, what was to be done.

Mr. Pettigrew said he felt like having the issue now, unless overruled by the Senate.

Dr. Harlan says the reason is because the stomach lacks certain digestive acids and peptones, and deficient secretion of gastric juice.

Nature's remedy in such cases is to supply what the weak stomach lacks. There are several good preparations which will do this, but none so readily as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which are designed especially for all stomach troubles, and which cure all digestive weakness on the common sense plan of furnishing the digestive principles which the stomach lacks.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give perfect digestion. First effect is to increase the appetite, and increased vigor, added flesh, pure blood, and strength and nerve and muscle is the perfectly natural result.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest tonic known, and will cure any form of stomach trouble, except cancer of the stomach. May be found at druggists' at 50 cents for full-sized package, or direct by mail from Stuart Company, Marshall, Mich. Little book on stomach diseases mailed free.

WASHINGTON & LEE.

THE THIRD DAY OF THE COMENCEMENT SEASOON.

The Law Class Celebration—Meeting of the Alumni—Presentation of the Boat-Race Prize—Harry Tucker Will Accept.

LEXINGTON, VA., June 15.—(Special)

The opening of the programme for the day's exercises at the Washington and Lee University was the law class celebration at 11 o'clock in the University chapel. The celebration was presided over by Mr. J. R. Smith, of Virginia, who introduced as the class historian Mr. W. R. Perkins, of Virginia. Mr. Perkins told the history of each member of his class, those who fell by the wayside, and those who attained the high honor of becoming graduates of the law department of the University. Also of the loss of that great lawyer, Hon. John Randolph Tucker, who had been the guiding star of many of the young men of the South and North.

Mr. Morgan, of Alabama, pointed out what he regarded as fatal defects of the amendment. He thought the existing Sherman anti-trust act, reinforced by the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court, was the real remedy against trusts.

RISE IN SUGAR STOCK.

In the course of his remarks, Mr. Pettigrew referred to the rise in Sugar stock during recent days, whereupon Mr. Gear (Republican), of Iowa, said the sugar debate of three years ago sent up Sugar stock forty points. "I think," exclaimed Mr. Pettigrew, "that the two debates on sugar—now and three years ago—justify the existence of a new political party."

Mr. Allison again urged that the amendment ought to go over for the time being, and he appealed to Mr. Pettigrew to allow this to be done. Mr. Pettigrew answered the objections made to his amendment. He said the objections were in the nature of excuses. He maintained that every objection could be met, and that he was willing to so amend his proposition as to make it an effectual remedy against trusts.

LEXINGTON, VA.

LEXINGTON, VA., June 15.—(Special) The opening of the programme for the day's exercises at the Washington and Lee University was the law class celebration at 11 o'clock in the University chapel. The celebration was presided over by Mr. J. R. Smith, of Virginia, who introduced as the class historian Mr. W. R. Perkins, of Virginia. Also of the loss of that great lawyer, Hon. John Randolph Tucker, who had been the guiding star of many of the young men of the South and North.

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Perkins's address, the Hon. Seth Shepard, of Washington, D. C., addressed the law class in a masterful effort.

THE LAWYER'S WORK.

Among other things, he said:

"Ours is a government of laws. A lawyer wrote the Declaration of Independence. Lawyers have been a majority in the councils of the framers of our Constitution. Politicians have been in great measure, and they have been in great measure, declared and shaped our legislative policies from the beginning. Misfortune has followed the wise in the implementation of their ideas, and the administration of our public affairs and calamity waits upon its extinction. I would not advise a lawyer, especially in the early stages of his career, to seek public distinction, much less to seek it, to avoid it, to gain some reward of public office; nor, if he has made some substantial provision for the wife and family, upon his retirement, to seek a position representative of his needs for the maintenance of good government and the advancement of general welfare and genuine article of moral and physical courage which I shall presently ascribe as one of the essential elements of the true lawyer."
